MESSAGE OF CONDOLENCE TO THE 17 LEARNERS WHO DIED THROUGH A FIRE BREAK AT HILLSIDE ENDARASHA ACADEMY, NYERY COUNTY – FRIDAY 6TH AUGUST, 2024:

The Kenya National Union of Teachers (KNUT) sends a message of condolence to the families of the 17 learners who lost their dear children in the unfortunate inferno at the Hillside Endarasha Academy in Nyeri County on 6th September, 2024.

It is unfortunate and regrettable that we can lose our children through such incidences today. We call upon calm among members of the public and the affected families as we implore on the Governments' security apparatus to conduct speedy investigations that will unearth the cause of the fire.

We equally pray for those learners that sustained burns and are battling for their lives in different hospitals within Nyeri County and beyond. We pray that they get a quick recovery and resume their normal learning and lives.

We pray that the Lord strengthens the affected families through these difficult moments of grief and ask that the Lord rests the souls of the young ones in Eternal Peace. Amen!

COLLINS HENRY OYUU
SECRETARY GENERAL
